This is coupled with an organised rota of activities. Children have opportunities for active lunchtimes with activities and equipment available. Are the incidents of poor behaviour kept to a minimum? A robust system for behaviour expectations, access to 'safe places' and opportunity for activities helps to minimise poor behaviour As above Are children accessing learning opportunities in the afternoon? Staff report positive learning behaviours in the afternoons The new timetabling of acts of worship being in the afternoon means that learning time after lunch is reduced. During the first term, feedback is positive. Worthy of note is the restlessness of children during school closure with lack of available equipment due to risk of germ contamination linked to Covid-19. Once school returns in September, careful consideration of available options will enable children to be well occupied.
---	-----------------	---	---------------------------------------	---	--------------------	--

Due to school closure, not all events and sports were available, though PCC continued to support during Lockdown with ideas and events for children to access at home. In addition, Sporting World provided an end of year Sports Day where children in each year group could submit scores for activities, competing against each other.

We have been advised that any money not spent from 19/20 can be carried forward. However, as much of our money is allocated to manpower, they continued to need paying despite restrictions. However, any surplus will be carried over to the 20/21 budget.
