Barn-a-b's at Our Lady's

We are looking forward to next term, as we have a fun whole School art project ahead and the soon-to-be robins will be having their transition visits.

Hopefully you have received a letter regarding hours that you want for September. We are filling up already, so if you know anyone who is interested in starting next year, ask them to talk to us sooner rather than later.

We have our own sun cream for the children, that we apply regularly. If you could apply the first layer before the children get to school, it would help us to get outside earlier!

Please label everything! Drinks, bags, lunchboxes etc.

Tong Chen was star learner this week for her fantastic maths skills.

Look out for the new phonics reading books coming your way (for you to read to your child). The children have been learning how to look after books. We will be loaning them out for all the children.

Have a wonderful half term.

Reach for the Stars!

Well done to the following children who have had achievements in the following areas:

Congratulations to Romeo Hleza who came third in a cross country race for Beavers.

Well done to Chloe-Jo Rippon who received certificates for swimming 10m backstroke and 15m front crawl.

It is wonderful to be able to celebrate the hard work and talents of our pupils. Children are invited to bring in their certificates, medals and good news on a Thursday morning so that they can be given out at assembly and celebrated in the school newsletter.

Royal Wedding Writing

On Saturday 19th May, in the glorious town of Windsor, the two royal romantics married at 12 O'clock, in the afternoon.

Seven minutes late, following a nervous, highly anticipated car journey, in a regal Rolls Royce, Meghan arrived at the magnificent St George's Chapel. Before the wedding, the dress was kept a secret from the groom and the world.

When Meghan got out of the car, there was a fanfare of trumpets and she walked up the twenty step entrance, towards Prince Harry.

During the ceremony, the Queen wore a lime green dress with a purple posy. The Duchess of Cambridge wore a primrose yellow coat. She has worn this outfit four times now.

Harry wore his black army uniform and Meghan wore a simple boat-neck dress with a veil that had fifty four embroidered flowers.

Alongside the Royal Family, Meghan's mother attended and a parade of famous celebrities like David Beckham, James Blunt and George Clooney.

The Wedding was praised for its diversity. Meghan walked down the aisle like a real princess. With her bridesmaids and pageboys behind her, she met Prince Harry at the altar and both looked very nervous.

Once the ceremony ended, the guests were invited to the party. There were fireworks, food and fun, Elton John, DJs and lots more. Meghan got changed into a blade white dress, designed by Stella McCartney. Harry got changed into a black Tuxedo. They both drove off in another classic car by Prince Harry himself. Kensington Palace released a statement thanking everyone.

Eagle Class.

On Saturday 19th May, in the wonderful town of Windsor, the two royal romantics married at noon. Everyone was in high spirits.

Just after 12pm, following a nervous, highly anticipated car journey in a regal Rolls Royce, Meghan arrived at the grand St George's Chapel.

Shortly after noon, while Harry was stood at the end of the isle, Meghan gracefully got out of the car and walked towards Harry. It is a well-known fact that no one knew what her dress would look like, not even Prince Harry. Seconds later, there was a magnificent fanfare of trumpets.

During the ceremony, you could see the Queen wearing a lime green hat and dress. The Queen sat next to her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh. Soon after, princess Kate arrived in a primrose yellow dress, with the four bridesmaids and four pageboys.

Whist watching the ceremony in the chapel, you could see Meghan's mum with a light green dress. Other guests included James Blunt, George Clooney and Oprah Winfrey, David and Victoria Beckham.

Later on, Meghan walked down the aisle to meet Harry in his uniform, while listening to the sound of a soprano followed by her bridesmaids and pageboys. Meghan met prince harry before listening to a sermon by Rev. Michael Curry, a passionate American priest. The wedding was more diverse than previous weddings due to the choices of a Gospel choir cells.

Afterwards, guests were invited to an after party. There was fun, fireworks, food, singing performances from Elton John and DJs. The next day Kensington Palace released a statement Thanking everyone!
