Recent Letter from Mr Meech

As from Monday 6th January all school assemblies will be moved to the afternoon. This is being done to enable us to free up the first 45 minutes of each day for whole school reading activities. Reading, particularly early reading, is a priority of the school and having all children reading at the same time will enable us to maximise resources and support all staff deliver high quality reading lessons.

The first Praise Assembly will be on Friday 10th Jan and the first Prayer Assembly will be on Monday 13th January. Both starting at 2.30pm.

From January, learning will now start at 9am prompt in each class. With this in mind, I ask that children are dropped off in the morning from when the classroom doors open at 8.50am. Each class will have their own registration and reading routines which will become embedded over the coming weeks, but there will be plenty of adults to direct children to what they need to do on entering the class.

We ask that this is not a time for meetings with the class teacher, as they will be listening to children read from the very beginning of the day. If you need to have a meeting with the class teacher then please either visit or ring through to the office and we can organise a suitable time. Class Dojo is still a great way to get a message to the teacher, if you haven't signed up to this please ask your child's teacher for more information.

On the subject of reading, I would like to thank Mrs Everett for her efforts in setting up a lending library. It has proved very successful in a short period of time and I have been delighted to see so many children making use of it. Also a big thank you for anyone who has donated books - please keep them coming! We will have a lot more reading initiatives coming up over the course of next year so please keep an eye out for these.

If any parent/carer would like some support or advice on how to maximise reading time at home then please contact the school, we would be only too happy to help. Finally, I'd like to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued support and wish each and every one of you a happy and peaceful New Year.
