

SWALLOWS HOMEWORK AUTUMN 2017

Homework will usually be set on a Monday or Tuesday and should be returned by the following Monday. Homework will support in class learning so it is important it is completed on time and to a high quality. Slots at our Homework Club can be booked through the office. Some homework can be done in advance. Every week, you'll need to read, learn your personal spellings and practise times tables. E mail any printing to: dchavasse@olcs.uk

| W/C: | Homework (plus reading, personal spellings and times tables) | Due in: |
|----------|---|----------|
| 18.09.16 | Residential. No homework. | |
| 25.09.16 | Research someone who dedicated their lives to a worthy e.g. St Teresa, Nelson Mandela, Florence Nightingale, Ghandi, Martin Luther King Jr, Emily Pankhurst. Create an information fact file. Explain how they made the lives of others better. | 2.10.17 |
| 2.10.16 | Maths - number. English – GAPs | 9.10.17 |
| 9.10.17 | Maths- temperature. English- comprehension | 16.10.17 |
| 16.10.17 | Science project (an extended homework due in after half term) Research mammals, reptiles, amphibians and insects. Create a booklet or fact sheets about each group. They need to be good enough to display. | 31.10.17 |
| 31.10.17 | English - Guy Fawkes comprehension Maths – calculations | 6.11.17 |
| 6.11.17 | Maths – problem solving Create an Anti-Bullying Week poster (13 th to 17 th November) to be displayed in school. | 13.11.17 |
| 13.11.17 | Maths – factors and prime numbers PSHE – create a poster about Road Safety Week (20 th to 25 th November). Include tips and instructions. | 20.11.17 |
| 20.11.17 | Maths – calculations Science–research either Charles Darwin or Carl Linnaeus. Write a character profile explaining his work. | 27.11.17 |
| 27.11.17 | Bake Off! (2 week homework) Research recipes for Christmas treats. Write your recipes and decorate to include in a class book. Make one of the recipes and bring in for a shared feast on Monday 12 th December. | 11.12.17 |

Anything created or printed on A4 will need to be neatly trimmed and glued in BEFORE handing in.