“Many things about tomorrow I don’t seem to understand, but I know who holds tomorrow and I know who holds my hand”

Father God,

As the parents of these young people, today we ask you to be with them as they leave this place.

We thank you that you have promised to be with us, wherever we go.

We thank you for this school, and the people within it, who have not only taught, but nurtured our children for the last 7 years.

Today, Lord God, I pray boldness over them, as they confidently trust that every day of their future is in their hands – and you have good plans for their lives.

I pray you will send positive friendships to enhance the ones they take with them, understanding and inspiring teachers to keep their love of learning going and be in their home life as the whole family adapts to the next stage of their lives.

We thank you for the memory banks that are so full of the lessons, stories, playtimes and adventures that this group of children have shared, and we look forward to be a part of what happens next.

I pray any nerves will subside and reassurance will take their place as they trust in new beginnings.

Amen
